Faculty Service Learning Report Form AY (Academic Year) _____ (Ex.: 2011-2012)

Brief Description of a Service Learning Course

1. There is an identified need on the part of a community partner;
2. Student volunteers in the class can address that need;
3. The Service Learning project meets a specific course objective, and students receive course credit for the activity;
4. The students do a reflective activity about the SL experience and experiential learning.

If your course project does not include all the 4 elements listed above, we can call it engagement and report it on the other form available on this site (Co-Curricular Service Report form).
