Southwestern Oklahoma State University

Department of Education – Faculty Professional Development

Pursuant to Oklahoma state requirements, teacher education faculty members must document annual professional development activities. The SWOSU Faculty Handbook defines professional development as "any activity that enhances the faculty member's professional capability" including, but not limited to, curriculum development, grants (funded/unfunded), presentation of papers, activities in professional organizations, workshops, publications, and poster presentations.

Faculty Member
Academic Year
Professional Development Activities

Due: July 31 (annually) Submit to: SWOSU Chair of Education