

WORK CONDITIONS AND HOURS

DRESS CODE

The University recognizes that due to the large variety of job duties and responsibilities that there will be differences in what is acceptable dress depending on an employee's position. The University will endeavor to make every effort not to infringe on an individual's preferred dress habits. The University will intervene when an employee's dress style, or grooming habits, interfere with their assigned work duties, become a safety concern or cause a distraction to faculty, staff or students.
