

FY06 REPORTED SCHOLARLY ACTIVITY

*Susan Al-Jarrah, language arts, published a chapter in Teaching Seeing and Writing, Boston: Bedford – St. Martins. The chapter was entitled: “Surefire Assignment: Writing Fences.”

*Susan Al-Jarrah, language arts, published a newsletter article in Writers and Projects of the Oklahoma State University Writing Project. The article was entitled: “Bottecelli and Butler: Defining the Humanities.”

*Fred Alsberg, language arts, published a poem in the Louisiana Review. The poem was entitled: “Beginning the Modern-day Odyssey.”

*Fred Alsberg, language arts, presented a paper at the 27th Annual Meeting of the Southwest/Texas Popular Culture Association. The paper was entitled: “Reassembling Dust.”

*Fred Alsberg, language arts, published a journal article in the Westview. The article was entitled: “Interview with Fred Alsberg.”

*Fred Alsberg, language arts, published a poem in the Pennine Ink. The poem was entitled: “Humility.”

*Melody Ashenfelter, accounting and finance, presented a paper at the DPE (Delta Pi Epsilon) Research Conference. The paper was entitled: “Accounting Assessment: A Four Year Study.”

*Arden Aspedon, allied health sciences, presented a paper at the Oklahoma Academy of Science (OAS) Annual Technical Meeting. The paper was entitled: “Osmoprotective Genes in Pseudomonas aeruginosa.”

*Arden Aspedon, allied health sciences, presented a poster at the Texas-Missouri Valley Branch Meeting of the American Society of Microbiology. The poster was entitled: “Osmoprotective Genes in Pseudomonas aeruginosa.”

*Arden Aspedon, allied health sciences, published a journal article in the Journal of Bacteriology. The article was entitled: “Microarray Analysis of the Osmotic Stress Response in Pseudomonas aeruginosa.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a chapter in the Oklahoma Academy. The chapter was entitled: “Pharmaceutical R&D: The Next 25 Years in Drugs: Legal, Illegal, and Otherwise.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “Acne Vulgaris and Its Treatment.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “Burns and Their Treatment.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “Myasthenia Gravis & Its Treatment.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “An Overview of the Premenstrual Syndrome.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “The Common Cold.”

*David Bergman, pharmacy, published a journal article in the Community Pharmacist. The article was entitled: “An Update on Migraine Headache & Its Treatment.”

*Anita Blankenship, sponsored programs, presented a workshop at the Summer 2005 Grant Writing Institute, sponsored by the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education. The presentation was entitled: “Human Subject Research and IRB.”

*Lisa Boggs, biology, presented a poster at the Western Society of Weed Science Meeting. The poster was entitled: “Weed Shifts in Glyphosate-Resistant Crops: Trends After Eight Years in Wyoming.”

*Roger Bromert, social sciences, presented a paper at the Oklahoma Humanities Council. The paper was entitled: “Angie Debo and Prairie City.”

*Dan Brown, social sciences, presented a paper at Oklahoma Criminal Justice Association Annual Meeting. The paper was entitled: “Juvenile Justice in the 21st Century.”

*Les Crall, general business, presented a paper at the Southern Academy of Legal Studies in Business. The paper was entitled: “Lockhart v. Loosen, Negligence Per Se Will Never Look the Same.”

*Jason Dupree, library, presented a workshop at the Using the ACRL Standards for Assessment Accreditation, and Institutional Outcomes Workshop, sponsored by the Oklahoma Council of Academic Library Directors (OCALD) and the Oklahoma State Regents for Higher Education (OSRHE). The presentation was entitled: “Incorporating the ACRL Information Literacy Standards Into a Library Instruction Program: Redesigning Your Program with a Practical Approach.”

*Laura Endicott, social sciences, created a test bank of questions for a textbook published by Pearson Longman Publishers. The textbook was entitled: “Civilization in the West.”

*Frederick Gates, social sciences, interviewed by “The Morning Brew” radio program KECO Radio. The topic discussed was “Historical Process of Supreme Court Nominees and their Confirmation Process.”

*Frederick Gates, social sciences, presented a paper at the Economic and Business Historical Society Annual Meeting. The paper was entitled: “Railroads and Depression: Early Industrialization in Columbus and Macon, Georgia.”

*Victoria Gaydosik, language arts, published two textbooks for Facts on File Publishers. The textbooks were entitled: “Companion to the British Novel,” Volume I and Volume II.

*Peter Grant, biology, published the International Conferences on Ephemeroptera newsletter. The newsletter was entitled: “The Mayfly Newsletter.”

*Vicki Hatton, kinesiology, published a journal article in the Oklahoma Association for Health, Physical Education, Recreation & Dance Journal. The article was entitled: “Are Schools Helping or Hindering Childhood Obesity.”

*John Hayden, social sciences, reviewed an article for Sixteenth Century Journal. The article was entitled: “Henry VIII.”

*John Hayden, social sciences, refereed published correspondence for The New York Times, Sunday: Letters to the Editor. The correspondence was entitled: “What Americans Worry About Most.”

*John Hayden, social sciences, created test bank questions for a textbook published by Pearson Longman Publishers. The textbook was entitled: “Civilization in the West.”

*Mariana Hentea, computer science and information systems, published a chapter in the Encyclopedia of Database Technologies and Applications, IDEA-Group Reference. The chapter was entitled: “Multimedia Databases.”

*Mariana Hentea, computer science and information systems, presented a paper at the 14th International Conference on Intelligent and Adaptive Systems and Software Engineering. The paper was entitled: “Improving Intrusion Awareness with a Neural Network Classifier.”

*David Hertzell, social sciences, published a journal article in the World History Connected. The article was entitled: “The World History Workbook.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, presented a paper at the Southwestern Association of Criminal Justice. The paper was entitled: “The Case for a 21st Century General Victimology.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, presented a paper at the American Society of Criminology. The paper was entitled: “Authentication of Allegations of Victimization.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, reviewer of a manuscript for McGraw Hill. The manuscript was entitled: “Introduction to Criminal Justice: Connecting the Dots.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, reviewer of a manuscript for Roxbury Publishers. The manuscript was entitled: “The Sociology of Contemporary Youth Subcultures.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, presented a workshop at the 4th American Society of Victimology Symposium. The presentation was entitled: “21st Century General Victimology: Back to Mendelsohn.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, presented a workshop at the Oklahoma Criminal Justice Association Conference. The presentation was entitled: “A 21st Century Challenge to Victimologists: Taking all victims seriously.”

*Philip Holley, social sciences, presented a workshop at the Oklahoma Criminal Justice Association Conference. The presentation was entitled: “Keeping Oklahoma Justice History: Thinking to the Future.”

*EunKyung Jeong, art, exhibition in an Exhibition Catalog, <http://yatoo.or.kr>. The exhibition was entitled: “Geumgang Nature Art Pre-Biennale, Exhibition – Vision About Nature.”

*EunKyung Jeong, art, exhibition in an Exhibition Gallery, www.womanmade.org. The exhibition was entitled: “Woman Made Gallery.”

*EunKyung Jeong, art, exhibition in a Solo Exhibition. The exhibition was entitled: “Wine Cup Stream.”

*EunKyung Jeong, art, exhibition at the SWOSU Faculty Art Show at USAO. The web address is: <http://www.usao.edu/news/index-old.html>.

*Jill Jones, language arts, presented a paper at the South Central Modern Language Association. The paper was entitled: “Pride and Prejudice: To Be Continued...”

*Jill Jones, language arts, published a chapter in the Encyclopedia of British Women’s Writing 1900-1950. The chapter was entitled: “Netta Syrett.”

*Joel Kendall, language arts, presented a paper at the Oklahoma Association for Institutional Research and Planning Fall Conference. The paper was entitled: “Ripple Effect: The University of Oklahoma’s Media Campaign and OU’s Subsequent Rise in the U.S. News & World Report’s College Ranking Edition.”

*Hung Le, mathematics, published a journal article in the Mathematical Analysis and Applications Journal. The article was entitled: “Maximal Functions Along Surfaces in Product Spaces.”

*Sophia Lee, music, presented a paper at the 7th Annual American Music Therapy Association Conference, Experience the Power of Music Therapy. The paper was entitled: “Music Therapy on Cyberspace III: Maximize your Learning Experience in Web-Assisted Courses.”

*Sophia Lee, music, presented at the Central Conservatory of Music in Beijing Workshop. The presentation was entitled: “Visiting Professor/Lecturer of Music Therapy.”

*Sophia Lee, music, presented a paper at the 11th World Congress of Music Therapy, from Lullably to Lament. The paper was entitled: “The Effectiveness of Web-Based Interactive Instruction on Introducing Music Therapy.”

*Sophia Lee, music, published a chapter entitled: “Women, Power, Music Therapy – Feminist Perspective on Music Therapy in Taiwan.”

*Sophia Lee, music, presented a paper at the Annual Southwestern American Music Therapy Association Conference, Fiesta! Celebrate the Music. The paper was entitled: “Voices of Power: Music Therapy for Rural At-Risk Youth in Alternative Education.”

*Sophia Lee, music, presented at the Music Teacher’s Continuing Education Workshop at Jenks, Oklahoma Public School. The presentation was entitled: “Adaptive Music Instructions.”

*Helen Maxson, language arts, presented a paper at the Southern Regional Conference on Christianity & Literature. The paper was entitled: “The Workings of Allusion and the Workings of Humility in Fiction by Wendell Berry.”

*Nina Morris, pharmacy, published a newsletter article in the Oklahoma Society of Health System Pharmacists Newsletter. The article was entitled: “Hurricane Katrina: An Oklahoma Pharmacist Making a Difference.”

*Warren Moseley, computer science and information systems, presented a poster at the 2005 Oklahoma Research Day. The poster was entitled: “From Hands-On Classroom Training to Augmented Distance Learning to User Centered Communities of Practice.”

*Warren Moseley, computer science and information systems, presented at the 17th Annual Conference of the Society for Information Technology and Teacher Education Workshop. The presentation was entitled: “Rural Isolation and Communities of Practice.”

*Warren Moseley, computer science and information systems, presented a paper and a poster at the 17th Annual Conference of the Society for Information Technology and Teacher Education. The paper and poster was entitled: “ROCCA: The Rural Oklahoma Collaborative Computing Alliance.”

*Warren Moseley, computer science and information systems, presented a poster at the 17th Annual Conference of the Society for Information Technology and Teacher Education. The poster was entitled: “Oklahoma Rural Math and Science Partnership (OK-RMSP).”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, reviewed an article for US Pharmacy Review 2006. The article was entitled: “Nonprescription Medications: Americans Deserve Increased Safety and Efficacy.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, published a textbook in the September 2005 Lippincott Williams & Wilkins textbook. The textbook was entitled: “Nonprescription Product Therapeutics.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a paper at the University of Oklahoma Health Sciences Center College of Pharmacy Nonprescription Products Class. The paper was entitled: “Trends in Nonprescription Products and Their History.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a paper at the 8th Nonprescription Medications Academy. The paper was entitled: “Sources for Information on Nonprescription Products.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, newsletter editor for Pharmat, Incorporated. The newsletter was entitled: “Multi-Theme Courses.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, published a chapter in The Oklahoma Academy’s 2005 Town Hall. The chapter was entitled: “Things Consumers Should Know About Nonprescription Medication.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed by Schering-Plough, KWGA, KTOK, and KEYB. The topic was entitled: “2005 Common Cold Media Awareness Campaign.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a paper for Southwestern Pharmacy Alumni Foundation Continuing Education Program, presented to pharmacists in Las Vegas, NV. The paper was entitled: “Recently Introduced Products and Changes in the Nonprescription Market.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a paper for Southwestern Pharmacy Alumni Foundation Continuing Education Program presented to pharmacists in Weatherford, OK. The paper was entitled: “Nonprescription Products III.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, published journal articles in the U.S. Pharmacist. The articles were entitled: “Meniere’s Disease,” “Tinea Cruris in Men: Bothersome But Treatable,” “Menstrual Cycle-Related Discomforts,” “Ototoxic Medications,” “GI Problems in Patients With Diabetes,” “Age-Related Hearing Loss in Men,” “A Look at the Cough and Cold Market,” “Nonprescription Products for Cardiovascular Health,” and “Recent Developments in Poison Control.”

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Blood Glucose Meters,” by Drug Topic.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Pseudoephedrine,” by Wall Street Journal.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Temperature Taking,” by the Delaware Parent.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Phenylephrine,” by Harvard Medical School.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Humidification and Children,” by Parents Magazine.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, was interviewed as an expert on “Head Lice Treatment,” by Science News Magazine.

*Steven Pray, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a paper at the 29th Annual Arthur E. Schwarting Pharmacy Practice Symposium. The paper was entitled: “Pharmacists and Nonprescription Products: A Critical Resource – Now and in the Future.”

*Mehdi Raoufi, computer science and information systems, presented papers at the 2006 Society for Information Technology and Teacher Education International Conference (SITE). The papers were entitled: “A course in E-commerce Web Development for the Undergraduate Curriculum in Information Technology/Information Systems/Computer Science” and “ROCCA: The Rural Oklahoma Collaborative Computing Alliance.”

*Valerie Reimers, language arts, presented a paper at the South Central Modern Language Association. The paper was entitled: “Women Working: Literary Spaces and Literal Spaces.”

*Charles Rogers, chemistry/physics, published a chapter in Great Events from History: The Seventeenth Century (1601-1700). The chapter was entitled: “Huygens Explains the Pendulum.”

*Charles Rogers, chemistry/physics, published a chapter in USA in Space, Third Edition. The chapter was entitled: “Gravity Probe B.”

*Charles Rogers, chemistry/physics, published a chapter in Great Events from History: The Seventeenth Century (1601-1700). The chapter was entitled: “Newton Builds His Reflecting Telescope.”

*Lisa Schroeder, language arts, published a journal article in Communication Studies Journal. The article was entitled: “Cultivation and the Elaboration Likelihood Model: A Test of the Learning and Construction and Availability Heuristic Models.”

*Bill Seibert, biology, presented a poster at the Southwestern Association of Naturalist Meeting. The poster was entitled: “Vegetation Analysis of the Optima National Wildlife Refuge.”

*Randall Sharp, pharmacy, presented a poster at the Annual Meeting of the American College of Clinical Pharmacy. The poster was entitled: “Implementation of the Laragh Treatment Method for Hypertension in a Cardiologist’s Office.”

*Joyce Stoffers, language arts, published a poem in the Cooweescoowee: Journal of Rogers State University. The poem was entitled: “October 24, 2001.”

*Joyce Stoffers, language arts, published a poem in Westview: A Journal of Western Oklahoma. The poem was entitled: “Farmers’ Market, Weatherford, Oklahoma.”

*Dennis Thompson, pharmacy practice, published a journal article in the Annals of Pharmacotherapy Journal. The article was entitled: “A Personal View of the History and Future Direction of Drug Information.”

*Virgil Van Dusen, pharmaceutical sciences, published a journal article in the Americas’ Pharmacist Journal. The article was entitled: “Current Concepts and Issues in Workers’ Compensation Insurance.”

*Virgil Van Dusen, pharmaceutical sciences, presented a workshop at the Southwestern Pharmacy Alumni Foundation Sponsored Continuing Education Program. The presentation was entitled: “A Review of Oklahoma Board of Pharmacy Enforcement Actions: 1985-2004.”

*Virgil Van Dusen, pharmacy practice, presented a poster at the American Pharmacists Association Annual Meeting. The poster was entitled: “Analysis of Oklahoma State Board of Pharmacy Enforcement Actions: 2000-2004.”

*Virgil Van Dusen, pharmacy practice, presented a workshop at the Pharmacy Law Conference. The presentation was entitled: “Oklahoma Pharmacy Law and Regulation Review: 2006.”

*Dennis Widen, music, published an electronic publication in the Ejournal of the Conference on Technological Directions in Music Learning. The publication was entitled: “Field-Dependent/Independent Learner Responses to the Technologies Used in College Group Piano Classes.”

*Dennis Widen, music, presented a paper at Oklahoma Research Day. The paper was entitled: “Field-Dependent/Independent Learner Responses to Instructional Technologies Used in College Group Piano Classes.”

*Misty Williams, residence life, presented a workshop at the Southwest Association of College and University Housing Officials 2006 Annual Conference. The presentation was entitled: “A Design on a Dime Approach to Low-Cost Residence Hall Improvements.”