

Families of SWOSU Students:

Well, your students have made it through the first few days of classes and activities! We hope they are having a great time and realizing what a great choice SWOSU was for them! In this edition, find out about the annual Organizational Fair, job searches, and free tutoring!

If your students have any questions or is having difficulties with homesickness or anything else—please have them contact our office, their Orientation Leader or resident advisor or hall director (if living on campus). We are all here to help and make sure that SWOSU feels like a home away from home.

Dawg Days continue at SWOSU

The Organizational Fair is on Thursday

If your student is looking for a way to get plugged in at SWOSU, they need to go to the Organizational Fair this Thursday, August 25. It is a huge gathering of student organizations and clubs, as well as local/area businesses, places of worship and others will have booths at the fair. There will be over 70 booths with games, prizes and giveaways too numerous to mention. Free...did I mention it is all free!

The fair, sponsored by the Dawg Days Committee, will be held from 10 a.m. until 2 p.m. on the south lawn of the Memorial Student Union Center.

The Organizational Fair is held as a “welcome back” for all SWOSU students, encouraging them to participate in campus/community/area activities.

For more activities a booklet containing various information about Dawg Days as well as other events is available online at: <http://www.swosu.edu/administration/studentdean/dawgdays11.pdf>

Bulldog Job Board aids in student job search

Upload a resume and search for on-campus and off-campus jobs

The Career Services office is ready to help students find a job. Students must upload a resume to the Bulldog Job Board and have it approved. If a student does not have a resume the Career Services staff can help in creating one. The next step is viewing the job listing and posting their resume. The Bulldog Job Board posts on-campus and off-campus jobs. For more information call Career Services at 580.774.3233 got to <http://www.swosu.edu/administration/careers/students/index.asp>.

Free Tutoring Help Available

Tutoring schedule to be posted online

SWOSU offers free tutoring to students in many academic areas. The tutoring schedule will be posted online in the upcoming weeks. Students may also check with the academic department in which they need help. Another great resource is The Writing Center. The Writing Center is located in the basement of the Al Harris Library, B3, and can help with a variety of writing projects. To contact the Writing Center go to <http://www.swosu.edu/academics/writingcenter/hours.asp> or call 774.7083.
