A. From FS President Logan:
   1. The Faculty Development Committee is sponsoring an institutional membership to 4faculty.org which is an "online professional development network of resources" for college faculty. Please go to 4faculty.org as soon as possible to register a user ID and password if you are interested as there are a finite number of slots. After September 30th the website will be open to staff and administration as well.
   2. Annual re-appointment letters are going out. Remember that we are moving to an earlier payment schedule (we will get a check in August); it is important for new employees to sign their I9 form by Aug. 10th.
   3. SWOSU in the process of insuring against identity theft; watch for new health insurance card from which the SSN has been removed. Student ID conversion began Friday Aug. 19. New ID numbers may be found in Campus Connect.
   4. There are five new 14 passenger vans (no special CDL needed) for college use. Upcoming safety training sessions will be announced.
   5. Student wages rose from $5.15 to $5.50. Budget units will have to adjust for the raise.
   6. Parents’ day is Sept. 10; SWOSU Saturday is Nov. 5th and Homecoming is early this year –Sept. 24. The theme is “Hear Our Growl; Feel Our Bite.”
   7. Revisions of the FS handbook and the student catalogue are in final revision. Student handbook revisions are underway.
   8. Remember that the Fall Faculty Workshop will be held in the Fine Arts Bldg. on Aug. 22 because of the on-going construction of the Student Union. The cul-de-sac will be closed so that construction vehicles and materials will have better access. The Wellness Center construction has gained ground and is nearing completion.
   9. The provost’s office will be splitting up duties for better efficiency: Cindy Foust will handle Student Affairs issues, while Blake Sonobe will concentrate on those that arise in Academic Affairs.
10. Freshman enrollment is still down – according to Bob Klaassen the FTE = 4084, 5.8% behind last year and the HdCT = 4423, 4.9% behind last year. We have one more (Aug. 9th) orientation session left to make up lost ground.
