

---

Government Information Worksheet

Government Information on the World Wide Web

Identify your research topic

---

Provide the web address of your government website

---

Identify the website's author/agency

---

1) What kind of information is collected by this agency?

2) Describe the relationship between this website and your research topic.
(Be specific)

3) Name one aspect of this website that appealed to you.

4) Name one piece of information you didn't expect to find on this government website.

5) What information from this website do you plan to include into your research?
(Identify all items that apply)